November 2008 – Points Based System English Test - Tier 2 Workers

This press release has information on:

- UK Border Agency approves the Academy of Oriental Cuisine's Points Based System English Test Tier 2

UK Border Agency approves the Academy of Oriental Cuisine's Points Based System English Test Tier 2

The Points based system is designed to streamline and help manage the flow of migrant workers to the UK. Nationals from outside the European Economic Area who wish to come to or remain in the UK. Tier 2 applies to those who wish to undertake skilled work. Applicants now will have to provide evidence that they have an acceptable standard of English i.e. that they have passed an English language test which is recognised by the Home Office.

The Academy of Oriental Cuisine's Points Based System English Test - Tier 2 has been approved by the UK Border Agency as being appropriate evidence of language competence for Tier 2 workers i.e. skilled migrants. This follows the earlier recognition of the Points Based System English Test Tier 1 Workers which replaces the HMSF.
